Planning and Executing a Great Bike Ride with Your Grandkids
October Meeting and Luncheon - Wednesday, October 17, 11 am

When you ask almost anybody new to Austin why they moved here, the answer is more often than not, “my grandchildren are here.” With so many of you here to be near your little darlings, ANC decided you might like something really fun to do with them. Enter Deaton Bednar!

Come to our September luncheon to meet Deaton, owner of Texas Bike Tours. She plans outrageously fun bike outings for a living and will happily share some of the most fun and fascinating biking destinations in Austin. She’ll tell you about kid-pleasing hidden gems, historical landmarks, adventurous activities, and yummy snack break options for you to enjoy with your grand kids while reliving again your own childhood joy of being on a bike. Don’t have a bike? Deaton can tell you good places to rent them—and what type of bike would work best for you and your fitness level.

Do something nice for your grandkids and do something equally great for yourself. Come hear from this “Houdini of the Handlebars” at our October luncheon and make your motto the same as Deaton’s, “LET’S RIDE!”

11:00 am - social hour
12:00 pm - lunch & program
$30/person. Pay online before noon, October 15th, or mail in your check and reservation form (page 14) by October 10.

Theater, the art scene, live music, trendy restaurants and bars, historic cemeteries, hiking, golfing, hobbies, games. This month’s Welcome Mat offers a variety of exciting ways to explore Austin with friends.
Hello Fellow Newcomers,

“Let’s have lunch, sometime.” That phrase has had a major impact on my life. Having lunch with friends and family gives me the opportunity to catch up with people I love. When I ask someone I just met if they would like to go to lunch, it opens the door to the promise of new friendships. There is a “lunch” opportunity at Austin Newcomers Club, on the third Wednesday of the month, except for November and December when the luncheon is on the second Wednesday of the month.

The monthly luncheon is the foundation of Austin Newcomers Club. This is the opportunity to catch up with our friends while enjoying lunch and listening to speakers from all disciplines of our dynamic city. The monthly luncheon may also be the first social outing for a new resident to Austin. This is our chance to turn on the “southern charm” and welcome new people to our community. By the way, don’t stay away from the luncheons because you need a ride, email me at president@austinnewcomers.com and I will do my best to set up carpooling opportunities.

Chez Zee has been hosting our luncheons for the last three years. This is a charming restaurant located at Mopac and 2222. For our luncheon, we have our own private dining area with tables set up in a cozy arrangement and there are twinkling lights scattered throughout the room adding an intimate ambiance. Chez Zee is a meeting spot for several community groups and organizations. The restaurant promotes local artists by displaying their art on the walls and offering prints for sale. And if you love to shop, there is a kiosk near the entrance to the main dining area, displaying a variety of gift items.

I look forward to seeing the luncheon regulars and I hope to see many new faces at our monthly luncheons this year. See you soon!

Valerie
