

Austin Newcomers Welcome Mat

October 2019 ★ Vol. 72, No. 3

At October luncheon:

Learn About One of Austin's Historic Homesteads

Robin Grace Soto, Executive Director of the Flower Hill Urban Homestead Museum, is the speaker for our October luncheon. She will share an interesting presentation about the Flower Hill Foundation.

The foundation was begun in 2004 by Miss Jane Smoot, traveler, citizen historian, longtime AISD English teacher, and last member of the Smoot family as a way to preserve her family home and share it with the world. The Flower Hill Urban Homestead is a celebration of the working class lives of American civil servants, the unsung foundation of our city and society. By using pieces of the past — including three centuries' worth of furnishings, textiles, and texts; the Texas wildscape, which is home to six historic out-buildings, ponds, and rockeries — the Foundation is establishing an inclusive space. They are working to carry out the late Miss Smoot's mission to celebrate an Austin founding family of civil servants and preserve one of the city's last historic homesteads.

Mrs. Soto, our speaker, has been working in non-profit management and education for the past 15 years. In addition to serving as the Director of Flower Hill, she is also the Director of Camp Shakespeare at Winedale through the University of Texas. Mrs. Soto also serves on the founding Board of Play's the Thing, which is a program offered to children and their families through Dell Children's Hospital.

Please come to the luncheon and help us welcome Mrs. Soto.

President's Message

Happy Halloween and Trick or Treat! Hope you have your candy ready!! I know everyone is enjoying the cooler jeans & flip flop weather. Don't we just love not having to dress in heavy parkas and snow boots?

Austin Newcomers is back in full swing with many fun and exciting activities for us all, so turn off that TV, get off the couch, and come make new friends while having a great time. This is your club, so make the most of what is offered for your enjoyment. Your volunteer board and committee chairmen are hard at work coming up with interesting things for you to enjoy. As Danny Kaye said, "life is a great big canvas and you should throw all the paint you can on it."

Be sure to check out Daytrippers: they are going to the LBJ Ranch & Historical Park at the end of October. And don't forget to mark your calendars for the luncheon at Chez Zee. This is a great time to get to know each other while enjoying good food. Our speaker, Robin Grace Soto, is the Executive Director of the Flower Hill Urban Homestead Museum, one of the last surviving original homesteads in Austin. Then there's Happy Hour at different restaurants around town. This draws a great crowd every month with special price drinks and half price appetizers large enough to call dinner. I don't know about you, but I just love having so many different, fun activities to choose from. Thanks to Austin Newcomers, my social calendar is full, and I hope yours is too. If ANC doesn't have an activity that appeals to you, maybe you would like to start a new group of "your" favorite thing..... just let us know.

I look forward to meeting each and every one of you.

AROUND AND ABOUT AUSTIN

Daytrippers

When: Wednesday, October 30, 10:00 am

Where: The LBJ Ranch and National Historical Park

Host: Susi Spies (310) 291-4150
Dale Truitt (214) 683-0821

Cost: Possible minimal entry fees at sites

RSVP: Sunday, October 27 by 5:00 pm

Details: We'll meet in Johnson City at the Science Mill at 10:00 for coffee in their Lady Bird Cafe and a quick look around at their hydroponic garden, living wall, and 3-D room.

Then, we'll stop at the LBJ State Historic Park to pick up parking passes for the National Historic Park, and to see the Sauer Living History Farm and watch an early CBS interview with LBJ himself about why he loved his ranch and growing up in Texas.

There aren't any good, convenient restaurants where we'll be, so bring your lunch and we'll picnic in a pretty picnic area nearby. After lunch, we'll visit the National Historic Park to see LBJ's boyhood home, etc. Finally, we'll head to Stonewall, Texas, to see the Johnson family ranch. NOTE: The ranch and lots, lots more is available to see, but the Johnson White House has been closed indefinitely for structural issues.

I'll send out a complete schedule the week of the event and everyone will be able to somewhat pick and choose what they want to do. If you email me with your registration instead of registering online, please include the area of town you live in and your phone and email for carpool planning.

FOOD/SOCIAL

Out-to-Lunch Bunch

When: Friday, October 25, 11:30

Where: Napa Flats
The Trails at 620

Cost: Separate Checks

RSVP: Online, or to Susi Spies by Wed. Oct. 23

Details: Our October location is Napa Flats, a terrific Italian restaurant out in the Steiner Ranch neighborhood (2222 at 620). The restaurant says their vision is simple: California flavors with an Italian flair. The food is all made from scratch and cooked in an open kitchen with a wood fired grill. There's lots of free parking and a room much like we enjoyed at 68 Degrees Madison: big enough that we can all talk without the noise driving us crazy--or deaf!

Chair: Susi Spies, susi.spies@gmail.com, 310-291-4150

FOOD/SOCIAL

Come to Dinner Bring a Plate

Come to Dinner – Bring a Plate is a monthly dinner group for single ANC members who enjoy cooking and socializing. We meet in small groups in a member's home the fourth Saturday of the month, and each guest brings a dish based on a menu selected by the host.

Contact the chair to be placed on the list to receive the monthly invitation, which is sent out early in the month.

Once the guest list is complete, the hostess sends out menu information and the address and directions to attendees.

When you join the list and come to dinner, we expect your commitment to be a host or co-host at least once every 12-18 months.

RSVP: Contact Lynne to be placed on email list.

Chair: Lynne Marcus, Lmarcus08@gmail.com

In Vino Veritas Carmenere: Great Wine, Great Story

When: Saturday, October 5, 5:00 pm

Where: Sandy & Joel Longstreth
13400 Briarwick Drive #1804, Austin 78729

RSVP: September 29

Cost: $15 per person, cash at the door

Details: At our October tasting, we will explore a French origin varietal that has found a home in Latin America - Carmenere. Its main growing region is Chile now.

Initially confused with Merlot, this medium bodied red wine is known for beautiful red and black berry flavors and herbaceous notes of green peppercorn.

Our host, Joel Longstreth, is a sommelier. He will hand pick and provide every wine we taste; so, no bottles to bring, just a tasting fee of $15 per person.

The hosts can only comfortably accommodate 18 registrants. Please sign up online early to secure a spot. We sell out most of the time. If online registration full, e-mail Antra at antrrra@gmail.com (yes, it's 3 r-s!) to be put on a waiting list for last minute cancellations.

See you on October 5 for another great evening of friendship and good wine!

Chairs: Antra & Tim Getzoff

BOOK GROUPS

Bluebonnet and Yellow Rose Book Clubs

Thursday, October 24

10:00 a.m. (social), 10:30 a.m. (lively discussion)

Books for the year (January-December) are nominated and chosen by vote by the Bluebonnet & Yellow Rose members. Most chosen books or authors have won literary awards.

Members are allowed to attend either book group if proximity is a problem. We meet at different members' homes, having a half hour social time, then a lively discussion for approximately one and a half hours.

The two groups have a joint author-presenting luncheon party during the holidays, along with a book exchange. Come and join us. The more the merrier!

To join, email Gayle Cannon at gayle.cannon70@gmail.com.

HOBBIES

Photography Bootcamp

When: October 8, 10:00 am

Where: UT Darrell K Royal
Texas Memorial Stadium, Northwest Corner

Cost: None

Deadline: Just come.

Details: For the month of October, we are going to a "Photography Bootcamp". This idea was taken from a podcast called, "Latitude Photography Podcast" with Brent Bergherm, where he did a book review of Ibarionex Perello's recent book called Making Photographs. Ibarionex is a photographer who claims the Dominican Republic as home, and hosts a podcast called "The Candid Frame".

We will be going to the campus of The University of Texas, meeting at the northwest corner of Darrell K. Royal, Texas Memorial Stadium (where the memorial to the soldier is) corner of San Jacinto Blvd and Deloss Dodd Way (probably better known as 23rd Street). When you arrive, you will be handed a list of "assignments," and a location for lunch will be decided at that time. Be sure to download the manual to your camera to your cell phone. You might need it for some of the assignments that you will be given. Also, please bring your own water bottle (a 32oz bottle is great for this exercise). If it has ridges, like many of the bottles, that is even better. Cut off both ends of the water bottle. Be sure to bring a wide-angle lens if you have one.

Happy Trails

When: Saturday, October 19, 9:00 am

Where: Festival Beach Trail
East Ave. and Nash Hernandez Road, Austin

Cost: Free

RSVP: No deadline

Details: Officially designated Edward Rendon Sr. Park at Festival Beach, this 500 acre waterfront park is an inviting place to walk and enjoy the beauty of the north side of Ladybird Lake. This area is called "Festival Beach" because it was the primary venue for Austin Aqua Festival from 1962-1998, and is now the venue for the rowing regattas and other local festivals. This park and trail have some of the prettiest shade trees in Austin, and a great view of the new boardwalk on the south side of the lake. The total distance for this walk will be approximately 2 miles, on an easy path. Bring water, sunscreen, sturdy shoes and hat.
